Easter Classes 2010 – Use Your Holiday Wisely

Date	Time	Classes
7 th –9 th April	10:30 am – 12:15 pm	Speak with Confidence Being able to speak up is the first step to successful speaking. We will use interactive activities to create interesting presentations, explore ideas and introduce discussion.
		Creative Writing Strong writing skills will stand your child in good stead no matter which career path they follow. We help students to develop clear structure and build vocabulary.
		Fun with Dr. Seuss Dr. Seuss's colourful and stimulating books and poems can inspire young readers. This class will help to persuade even reluctant readers that books are fun.
	14:00 pm – 15:45 pm	The Roald Dahl Challenge Students will read books, plays and poetry by famous English author Roald Dahl. We will look at Dahl's language and help children to think beyond the texts. Students will create a short play and take part in mini presentations.
		An introduction to Debate Participants will learn how to create effective and persuasive arguments and incorporate evidence into discussions. We will also work on delivery skills. At the end of the 4 day workshop, students will have a full debate to apply the skills they have learned.
		Drama Class This course will build on the basics of acting, teaches how to approach and develop a character from a monologue or play and developing strong and credible characters in the drama.

All classes are led by Brandon English teachers who are currently teaching the English Speaking Board programmes.
